What do you see?

Bad figs that could not be eaten

Good figs that are first ripe

For their own good

The LORD

Figs, the good figs, very good;
and the bad, very bad, which cannot be eaten, they are so bad.

Build them up and not pull them down, plant them and not pluck them up

He will bring them back to this land and build them up.

The land of the Chaldeans

I will deliver them to trouble into all the kingdoms of the earth, for their harm, to be a reproach and a byword, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I shall drive them.

Then I will give them a heart to know Me, that I am the LORD; and they shall be My people, and I will be their God, for they shall return to Me with their whole heart.

A heart to know Me

Sword, famine and pestilence
