To pray for the remnant

All the captains of the forces, Johanan, Jezaniah, all the people from the least to the greatest.

Jeremiah

I have heard.

“Please, let our petition be acceptable to you, and pray for us to the LORD your God, for all this remnant (since we are left but a few of many, as you can see), that the LORD your God may show us the way in which we should walk and the thing we should do.”

Show them the way in which they should walk and the thing they should do.

“Let the LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not do according to everything which the LORD your God sends us by you. Whether it is pleasing or displeasing, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God to whom we send you, that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.”

According to your words

I will declare it to you

Johanan, all the captains, all the people from the least to the greatest mercy

Save you and deliver you from his (Kind Nebuchadnezzar) hand

The sword they feared would overtake them there. The famine they feared would follow them there. There they would die.

No war, no sound of the trumpet, no hunger for bread

Not dwelling in the land

His fury would be poured out

No one

They shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence. And none of them shall remain or escape from the disaster that I will bring upon them.

Admonished them

Egypt

oath, an astonishment, a curse, and a reproach; and you shall see this place no more.

Anything He ask

Pray for us to the LORD our God, and according to all that the LORD your God says, so declare to us and we will do it.
