

According to 1 Corinthians 8:1, what do we all have?

According to 1 Corinthians 8:1, what is this chapter about?

According to 1 Corinthians 8:1, what does knowledge do to a person?

According to 1 Corinthians 8:1, what does love do to a person?

According to 1 Corinthians 8:2, what happens to a person who thinks they know everything?

According to 1 Corinthians 8:3, if you love God, what do you know?

According to 1 Corinthians 8:4, what is an idol in this world?

According to 1 Corinthians 8:4, how many other gods are there?

According to 1 Corinthians 8:5 and 6, even if there were many other gods in heaven or on earth, how many Gods are there for us?

According to 1 Corinthians 8:6, who is our God?

According to 1 Corinthians 8:6, what did our Father God do?

According to 1 Corinthians 8:6, what did the Lord Jesus Christ do for us?

According to 1 Corinthians 8:7, does everyone know in their conscience that it is all right to eat meat offered to idols because idols are nothing?

According to 1 Corinthians 8:7, why can't some people be all right with eating meat offered to idols?

According to 1 Corinthians 8:8, how does this food that we eat affect us and our relationship to God?

Puffs them up

Things offered to idols

knowledge

God knows you!

They really know nothing as they ought to. Edifies them (benefits a person morally or spiritually)

One God

There is no other God but one

nothing

Through Jesus all things were made and through Him we live.

He made all things, we are from Him

The Father

We are neither better nor worse.

Because their conscience is weak and defiled (polluted or tainted)

no

According to 1 Corinthians 8:9, even though you know that these idols have no power over the food you eat, why should you be careful about eating this food in front of other people?

According to 1 Corinthians 8:9, why would another person start believing in idols because they saw you eating food that had been offered to an idol?

According to 1 Corinthians 8:10, if someone sees you eating in an idol's temple what might happen to them?

According to 1 Corinthians 8:11, why would the weak brother perish if he saw you eating meat that was offered to idols?

According to 1 Corinthians 8:12, since you were the example to the weak brother than what did you do?

According to 1 Corinthians 8:13, the conclusion is that if my food makes a brother stumble what should I do?

They might be emboldened
(encouraged) to do the same thing.

They are weak.

It could be a stumbling block to them.
(It could make them start believing in idols.)

Never eat meat (offered to idols) again

You sinned against Christ.

Because he saw you doing it. You were his example.