

2 Corinthians 3

Christ's Epistle

¹ Do we begin again to _____ ourselves? Or do we _____, as some others, _____ of _____ to you or _____ of _____ from you? ² You are our _____ written in our _____, known and _____ by _____; ³ clearly you are an _____ of Christ, _____ by us, written not with _____ but by the _____ of the _____ God, not on _____ of _____ but on _____ of _____, that is, of the _____.

The Spirit, Not the Letter

⁴ And we have such _____ through _____ toward God. ⁵ Not that we are _____ of ourselves to _____ of anything as being from _____, but our _____ is from _____, ⁶ who also made us _____ as _____ of the _____, not of the _____ but of the _____; for the _____, but the _____ gives _____.

Glory of the New Covenant

⁷ But if the _____ of _____, written and _____ on _____, was _____, so that the _____ of Israel could not look _____ at the _____ of _____ because of the _____ of his _____, which _____ was _____ away, ⁸ how will the _____ of the _____ not be more _____? ⁹ For if the ministry of _____ had _____, the ministry of _____ exceeds much more in _____. ¹⁰ For even what was made _____ had no _____ in this respect, because of the _____ that _____. ¹¹ For if what is _____ away was _____, what _____ is much more _____. ¹² Therefore, since we have such _____, we use great _____ of _____ — ¹³ unlike _____, who put a _____ over his _____ so that the _____ of _____ could not _____ steadily at the _____ of what was _____ away. ¹⁴ But their _____ were _____. For until this _____ the same _____ remains _____ in the _____ of the _____, because the _____ is taken away in _____. ¹⁵ But even to this _____, when _____ is read, a _____ lies on their _____. ¹⁶ Nevertheless when one _____ to the Lord, the _____ is _____ away. ¹⁷ Now the Lord is the _____; and where the _____ of the _____ is, there is _____. ¹⁸ But we all, with _____, beholding as in a _____ the _____ of the Lord, are being _____ into the same _____ from _____ to _____, just as by the _____ of the _____.
